Ladies Festival Orchestra

Six sparkling, talented girls constitute the Ladies Festival Orchestra. These young ladies sing and play remarkably well, give orchestral numbers, readings, songs, instrumental solos, duets and costumed selections. Their programs are of infinite variety and every number is rendered with all the finish and musicianship of which true artists alone are capable. Versatile and vivacious, these charming young ladies win every audience.

The Ladies Festival Orchestra had been one of the outstanding successes among musical companies of the East for several years. Their appearance on the Dominion Chautauquas Festival is of more than ordinary importance. There is plenty of fun, good music, light music, and just real music in the Ladies Festival programs—when they sing their closing piece there's a glad feeling in your heart for the happiness of life and of living they have left with you.

Captain W. J. Hindley

Captain W. J. Hindley is a Canadian by birth. For a period of four years he was Mayor of the City of Spokane, and for many years has had an active part in the up - building of Western United States and Canada. For several months the past season he was engaged by the United States Government to visit western cities with a view of counteracting German Propaganda. Great receptions were held for him everywhere. Into his patriotic stirring message, he pours the wealth of his far-reaching logic. His flowing eloquence rightly earned him the name, "The Silver - Tongued Orator." Both Mr. and Mrs. Hindley will be happy to meet each and everyone of you at the close of the program.

The Ionian Serenaders

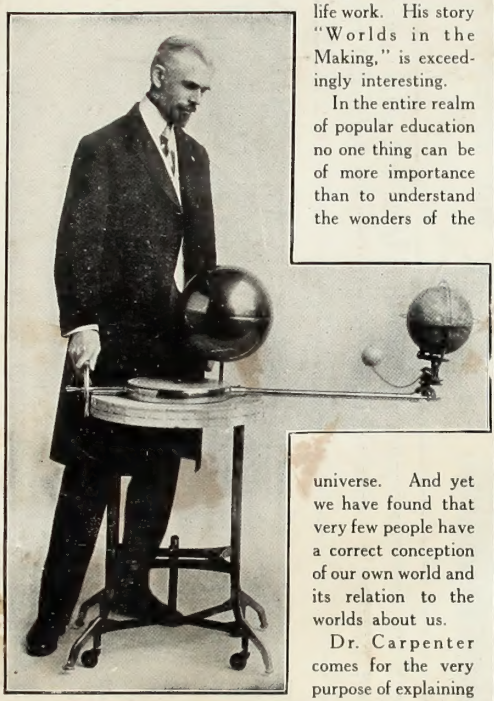
The Ionian Serenaders are four vivacious girl enter tainers who will present a highly pleasing program. These four talented young ladies have won a prominent position among the foremost musical companies of the platform. They are as versatile as they are charming and delightful. They sing, impersonate and play with unusual skill. Individually and collectively, there is the same winsome appeal to their work. An attractive feature of their programs is the revival of the accordion, using this harmonious old instrument with exceptional effect. They feature, too, the violin and 'cello. There is endless variety and charm to their program, instrumental and vocal solos, duets, trios, readings and sketches in costume.

Dr. Yutaka Minakuchi

One of the cleverest Japanese orators who has visited this country. A deep student and scholar who has spent many years this side of the Pacific, and very recently returned after spending three years in Russia and Japan. He has a thorough grasp of the subject on which he speaks so eloquently. "The Oriental Problem," his subject is of a compelling interest at this time. So earnest is he in expounding the Anglo-Japanese cause that he holds his audience spell-bound for he never ceases to emphasize his words in a characteristic shrug, or using his hands as exclamation points. Dr. Minakuchi is eminently qualified to discuss this very vital question.

Dr. A. D. Carpenter

When it is announced that Dr. A. D. Carpenter is going to talk astronomy it might give the impression that he will lecture on a mummyfied subject. Far from it. There is not a dry minute in his whole lecture. He presents the marvels of the universe in terms of the popular mind, and this has been his life work. His story "Worlds in the Making," is exceedingly interesting.



In the entire realm of popular education no one thing can be of more importance than to understand the wonders of the universe. And yet we have found that very few people have a correct conception of our own world and its relation to the worlds about us.

Dr. Carpenter comes for the very purpose of explaining the wonders of "celestial mechanics." With the aid of his Matlick Tellurian machine, a revolving minature of the universe, he presents his subject in a highly absorbing and interesting manner. It is not technical. Even a child can follow and understand. Yet it will give you a new understanding entirely of the starry heavens and the world you live in.

Astronomy was known by the shepherds of ancient days far better than it is to-day in our modern schools of education, yet no branch is of more absorbing interest. Dr. Carpenter is an eminent scientist and astronomer, and you will spend a very pleasant hour in his company.

Dr. G. Whitfield Ray

Official Explorer for Bolivian Government

G. Whitfield Ray, noted explorer, author and lecturer, Fellow Royal Geographical Society of London, known as the "Livingstone of South America," is coming to Chautauqua Festival.

Rivaling Robinson Crusoe and Treasure Island for breathless interest is Dr. Ray's story of his fourteen years of exploration in South America. During all the fourteen years, Dr. Ray was official explorer for the Bolivian Government. The Brazilian Government christened a great mountain peak "Mount Ray" in honor of his services. Dr. Ray penetrated interior jungles where he mingled with savages, previously unknown.

His lecture, "Through Five Republics on Horseback," repeatedly packed the largest hall in London to capacity. It is not only a rousing story of adventure, but a story filled with invaluable information about South America.

The Cameron Company

J. H. Cameron, of Toronto, is an entertainer, who offers a repertoire of humorous and dramatic sketches, impersonations, songs, humorous dialect stories, musical monologues and patriotic numbers to which he is constantly adding, and one never knows what new "stunts" he will give. All over the Dominion he has been enthusiastically received. He is so full of fun that he has been titled "The Prince of Clever Story Tellers." The Toronto Globe has stated:—"Mr. Cameron had two program numbers, and was recalled nine times." He is ably assisted by Dr. Vernon Fisk at the piano.

Chautauqua Festival

CARRY ON! Chautauqua Festival's Message

Chautauqua is repeating its continental wide successes. Endorsed by the leading business men everywhere; and better still, backed by popular public opinion. It's a treat that cannot be missed.

Right to your doors are brought some of the world's ablest speakers and musicians. They are filled with that patriotism which is driving ahead to victory and they bring the message of faith and hope to all.

A Word From the Man Who Plans the Programs

The Chautauqua Festival program this year offers you and your children good, clean, wholesome, entertainment and instruction. Many of the lecturers of international reputation who have appeared on the big summer Chautauquas have consented to remain in Canada and carry their message to you.

The Chautauqua Festival brings the world to your door. As the years go by, you and your children will have heard many of the world's foremost men and women. Think of the inspiration this will mean to the ambitious boys and girls of your community.

There will be six splendid programs, three afternoons and three evenings. The Season Tickets sell for $1.75, which is less than 30 cents per program. If you go to the large cities and hear lecturers and music, the like of which the Chautauqua Festival brings you, you will pay from one to two dollars for each program; in addition to the cost of your transportation and hotel expense. The principal reason that the Chautauqua Festival brings so much at such a low price is because your committeemen have done their work without pay, and because there are so many committeemen helping. There are over 7,000 committeemen in the Canadian Chautauqua west of Winnipeg. They are the biggest and best people of every community whether it be in the small or large communities. Members of the Provincial Houses, members of Parliament, two premiers and two lieutenant-governors are on the Chautauqua committees in their own community.

Your Committee have a limited number of Season Tickets that may be purchased. When they are gone, you will have to pay as you enter, and if you see all the program, it will cost you about three times the price of the Season Ticket. Plan in advance to hear the Chautauqua Festival. It's purpose is to entertain you, to inspire you to do bigger and better things and to make you feel that life is worth while.

Sincerely yours,

J. M. ERICKSON.

Ladies Festival Orchestra

It is Educational, Entertaining and Inspiring

¶ There are lectures unique and dramatic; ranging from Japan and her problems to the wonders of South America. Come and hear Dr. Carpenter's message on the marvels of the universe.

¶ There are singers and entertainers who will laugh away the war-worries of the audience, others will bring you to a sterner realization of the Allies in this historic struggle of metal and flesh.

General Information

SEASON TICKETS are on sale by the committee until noon of the opening day at $1.75. War Tax extra. They are transferable only within the owner's immediate family.

SHOULD YOU FORGET to bring your season ticket, purchase a single admission from the cashier and get a receipt. Bring your season ticket to the next session and hand to the cashier with your receipt. She will then refund to you the amount of your single admission.

SINGLE ADMISSIONS to the various sessions amount to nearly three times the cost of a season ticket. Even though you attend but a few numbers, it is economy to buy a season ticket. Children's single admission approximately half price.

OUR SERVICE FLAG. Over twenty-five men who were in our employ last year are now serving under the colors. All men now employed have complied with all existing Military Service Acts, and several will soon be called for service.
